THE BENEFITS OF POMEGRANATE JUICE WITHOUT THE CALORIES

ANTIOXIDANTS

P40p is a unique product that is carrier-free, soluble in water and standardized to a full spectrum of the essential compounds thought to be responsible for the health promoting benefits of pomegranate juice. P40p was developed by Nektium, based in Las Palmas (Canary Islands), Spain.

P40p pomegranate extract is standardized to a minimum of 40% punicosides and a minimum of 50% total polyphenols. P40p contains high levels of antioxidants and natural compounds which may help to reduce some of the cell damage created by free radicals during the natural biological process in the body.
